PLAYERS STALL WINS PRIZE

Thanks to everyone who helped out on the Players' stall at this year's St Lawrence Fair. As many of you know already it won the prize for the best dressed stall - see picture on the right.

COARSE ACTING PLAYS NOW ON IN OCTOBER

Most of you will know by now that the Player's Coarse Acting production destined for the Hurst Festival had to be postponed and will now be put on between the 23rd and 27th of October. Tickets will be available soon from the mint House. The plays are: 'Present Slaughter', 'Streuth', 'A Collier's Tuesday Tea' and 'The Cherry Sisters'. Encourage everyone you know to come and see it - it's going to be great fun.

PANTO TIME!

OCTOBER 1st is the day for reading and casting this year's Panto.

Richard Coney (the well-known, award-winning director) is going to be putting on ROBIN HOOD AND THE SINGING NUN.

All are welcome to come along and try for the many really good (and not too big) parts, so bring along your friends even if they only want to help out backstage or be in the chorus. It will, as always, be really great fun to be in. There will be ten or eleven performances between 28th of December until 5th January, with the dress rehearsal on the 27th December.

(NO PERFORMANCE ON NEW YEAR'S EVE!)

THE VAGINA MONOLOGUES

This has been proposed for production during the 2008 Hurst Festival.

Because of the adult subject matter and some of the forthright language used, it has been suggested by the committee that members are asked if they would like to take part in this show. In spite of the sexual discrimination laws, I'm afraid the casting is only open to females and could consist of anything between three and six women.

If you are interested or want to read the monologues, please let me know.
